SJP's clutch goes with everything

When Sarah Jessica Parker bought a multicolor $990 VBH clutch, she knew it would be worth the splurge! "The beauty of SJP's bag is that it goes with everything," says celebrity stylist Danna Weiss. Since the clutch has several different colors swirled together, it works with almost any outfit, says Weiss. It even goes with different patterns, from florals to checks.

The slight metallic sheen makes it even more versatile, says VBH designer Bruce Hoeksema.
