

People

weekly

Cachet and Carry

We all have our baggage, but these days celebs on the go, including Cynthia Nixon, Minnie Driver and Lisa Kudrow, won't leave home without the big and roomy Hogan Pan Am bag. The tote, which ranges in price from $650-750, offers "a stylish way to carry your entire life around with you," says Manhattan stylist Danna Weiss. Available in leather, nylon and canvas versions, the bag "has a classic shape with a mix of really cool colors." Singer Mandy Moore, who chose one in leather flipped when she first spied it last month. It's a functional item that looks "sophisticated without being too hoity-toity," she says. Fashioned after the Pan Am flight-crew carry-on from the '60s, the Italian-designed notes are "chic and practical," says Emanuele Della Valle, COO of Hogan, adding that they're perfect for "the woman

Style Watch

"a stylish

way to carry your entire life around with you,"

"has a classic shape with a mix of really cool colors."

portable at the same time." That doesn't mean men can't lug the bag as well. "It's functional," says Weiss. "But guys have to be careful. They don't want to look like they have a purse." with Tina L. Redwood in New York City

Packing panache:

1. Cynthia Nixon
2. R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe
3. Minnie Driver
4. Lisa Kudrow
5. Catherine Zeta-Jones

anthony m. re