Mariska vs. Alexandra
With a busy dress like this, the rule is to go minimal on accessories, says fashion expert Dana Weiss. "Mariska looks great, because she's really focusing on the dress," Weiss explains. Alexandra ODs on accessories (chunky earrings, oversized bracelet and metallic clutch) that vie with the dress for attention.

Cameron vs. Lauren
When wearing such a bold-patterned skirt, it's crucial to keep everything else neutral or nude. Lauren's dark shoes are a no-no. Cameron's nude top, neutral bag and clear sandals are a better combination, but Weiss points out that Cameron makes a misstep with her bag — creating an odd neckline.

LISA SNOWDON

Lindsay vs. Lisa

Lisa pairs her super-trendy cutout top with a miniskirt that shows way too much leg. The rule is: When wearing cutouts, it's best to balance the look by covering up on the bottom. Lindsay gets it right by pairing the top with jeans, so her look is sexy but not scandalous.

JOSIE
MARAN

KATIE
HOLMES

Josie vs. Katie

Josie's dress is way too long, says Weiss, and when flowing dresses hit the floor, they balloon out and create a less-flattering line. Katie's height (5' 9") is perfect for a dress with a
